

Mrs. Anna Lamprou is one of the partners at Soteris Pittas & Co LLC. Her areas of expertise being Corporate and Commercial Litigation, Arbitration Law, and Administration Law, Mrs. Lamprou has extensive court experience in representing companies and individuals in cases involving, inter alia, shareholders' disputes, conspiracy matters, fraud, breach of fiduciaries duties, as well as cases regarding the issuance of injunctive relief in aid of arbitration procedures. In her years of practice, she has advised clients in regards to various legal issues and has handled cases on matters relating to the recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments and arbitral awards in the Republic of Cyprus, as well as the appointment of Interim Receivers and Winding Up Petitions, she has been involved in the handling of commercial arbitral claims and negotiations.

In addition to the above, Mrs. Lamprou also deals with matters relating to the General Data Protection Regulation and holds the position of the Data Protection Officer (DPO) of Soteris Pittas & Co LLC, as she has been highly involved in the implementation of the information security related legislation and the continuous compliance of the Firm with the Data Protection Legislation.

As the responsible person of the Continuing Professional Development (CPD) program of Soteris Pittas & Co LLC, Mrs. Lamprou organizes the inhouse, as well as the public seminars hosted by the Firm.